

Principal's Weekly TMS News Update!

- Parents of distance learners are reminded that live instruction begins on Tuesday, September 8th. If you have not received information pertinent to access your child's distance learning program, please contact his/her teacher or school counselor.
- Distance learning packets will be distributed again this afternoon at TMS from 2:30 to 7:00 pm. If you are unable to pick up your child's DL packet, please contact the office next week to make arrangements to pick up their materials.
- Reminder to parents that parent signature documents from our opening day packets were due to be returned today. If you have not returned them, please do so on Tuesday, September 8th. It is very important that we receive their required signed documentation. The return of this documentation also applies to distance learning families. Distance learning parents can drop off this documentation in the drop box in the middle school foyer.
- Please be reminded that Wednesday, September 9th is an early release day for students due to the Half /Professional Day for teachers. The school day for students will end at 11:30 am. Walkers and parent pick up students will be dismissed at 11:20 am.
- Have a great Labor Day Weekend!!

Stay Healthy,

Steven C. Knowlton
